

The Artistry of Kathy McNeil

Our January speaker is Kathy McNeil, an internationally award winning quilt artist, author, pattern designer, teacher and judge. Hand appliqueing thousands of little scraps of fabric together, she creates quilts that look like paintings. These wall hangings are inherently and symbolically full of love and comfort. Often using over a hundred different fabrics in one composition, she revels in adding small details and surprises for the viewer to find. The quilting itself adds an additional element of texture to her work. Her quilts are frequently featured in museums, magazines, calendars, and international shows. Many of her quilts are in private collections.

Please join us at our afternoon or evening meeting in January to enjoy Kathy's wonderful stories and beautiful quilts. See pages 8-9 for workshop descriptions and registration information.

President's Letter

Welcome to a bright and shiny new year! I am looking forward to seeing all of you at our meeting on January 24, either in the afternoon at 1:00 or in the evening at our new starting time of 6:00. As a result of the ballot voting at the September meeting, I have been elected President over Candy Huddleston by a margin of 2 votes. Thank you to all of those who voted and thank you to Candy for your willingness to run for office. The more people involved, the better it is for all of us. As a result of such a close vote, we will be looking at updating the by laws as far as what the procedure is in a tie. If one person had voted differently, I am not sure what we would have done.

The new Board is in place with many new faces and ready to begin work. We have three openings on the Board. Wendy Sienknecht has decided to step down from Fair Ribbons after sixteen years in that position. Wendy has brought us up to participating in nine fairs with ribbons and prize money. I have so enjoyed getting to know Wendy while working with her on the Board. She will be missed. Connie Garrison is stepping down from Fund Raising. She has brought the level of items available for purchase up quite a bit. This is an important source of funds for WSQ so we hope that there is a group or an individual that is up to the challenge. Leslie Smith has decided to step down from Public Relations. She has served for several years in this position on both the general Board and the Quilt Show committee. This position does publicity for both the guild and the quilt show. Are there a couple of people who would enjoy letting the rest of the world know what we are all about? I want to thank each of these women for all the hard work they have put into making WSQ the dynamic organization that it is. If you are interested in any of these positions, please let one of the Board members know.

Thank you to all the members who filled out and turned in the Volunteer Profile Form. We are working on the spread sheet and will be getting in touch with those who have expressed an interest in helping us out. The forms will be available at every meeting, so please fill one out if you have not. I would like to ask the membership to wear their name tags to every meeting. When you first joined WSQ, you were given a kit for a name tag and at the last meeting Carolyn Kruger was looking for help in making the kits. I have noticed that not many members are wearing them and would like to improve on that. You will see the Board members with their gaudy name tags and it helps us to know who you are by your name tag. Please work on finding it and then remembering to wear it. It's like the reusable shopping bags, once you get in the habit of using it, you will remember to take it with you!

We will be voting on the budget for the coming year at this meeting. The budget is printed in the newsletter. Please look it over to see how our money is spent. Cheryl Clossin will present the budget and answer any questions you may have. I would appreciate a more active and informed membership. Our next Board meetings will be January 9 and March 13 at 6:00 at Centerplace. All are welcome to attend. We have lots of wonderful activities scheduled for the coming year: speakers, workshops, bus trips, yard sale, raffle quilts, charity quilts, new books in the library, block exchanges, the Fair Booth to run, Fair ribbons to give out, Quilting Bees to attend, newsletters to read, Fundraising items to purchase, and last but not least, the Quilt Show to participate in. We always need your help to make all of these events exciting. There is a place for everyone who wants one. I hope that you are someone that wants a place helping us out. It's going to be a great year!

January Workshops with Kathy McNeil

Friday, January 25

New Beginnings

One day Hand Appliqué workshop for confident beginners and intermediate appliqué students. $13.95 Required New Beginnings pattern fee. Pattern must be pre-ordered from Kathy's web site so students will have the instructions for preparing their background oval. www.kathymcneilquilts.com.

The language of flowers, is a means of communication through the use of flowers. Meanings have been attributed to individual flowers for thousands of years. My Tussie Mussie blocks each convey a special sentiment. Start with the "New Beginnings" Block for this project.

Kathy will be teaching the APLIQUICK method of turning your edges to create each flower and ribbon unit. Unit appliqué is a versatile appliqué technique very usual in creating complex blocks or appliquéd wall hangings. Tools for this technique will be available to try in class or you can pre-order them from her web site. Needle turning will work, but Kathy will not be teaching that method, so you must be comfortable with that technique. Learn basic hand embroidery stitches and how to make dimensional cherry blossoms to enhance the visual impact of your block. You will be delighted with the shading possibilities of fabric paint crayons too! Although we will just be working on the floral units in class, Kathy will cover the assembly of this beautiful Victorian block. Watch a free video of the Apliquick method on my web site if you are curious about this technique before class.

Saturday, January 26

Under The Sea

6 hour workshop. Pattern Fee $13.95...Pattern to be ordered from Kathy's website. Your choice of one of these two patterns to be used in class.

Fast, fun, and Oh so Beautiful. Step into the world of pictorial quilting. Add novelty fussy cut images to personalize your under the sea quilt. Choose one of these beloved animals. Learn the steps of layered appliqué. Choose the easy turned edges Apliquick method, or raw edge fused. Have fun with painting to create form and dimension in your animals. Kathy will demonstrate her fabric paint crayons to add lovely hints of shading. We will finish with a discussion of how to quilt the pictorial quilt.

Spokane County Fair ~ 2018 Raffle Quilt Booth

What an Adventure!

The parking at the fairgrounds was quite the challenge. We will find out in the Spring if this will be a continuing charge. A very special thank-you goes out to Ernie Crann. It took her 2 hours to be able to park, had a wonderful attitude when she finally got to the booth and happily volunteered for another shift when she found out that someone had cancelled last minute. Our group is so blessed to have these kinds of women.

We hope to see you at the 2019 Fair!

Historian News

Hello and Happy New Year to everyone! As we turn the calendar page to 2019, the WSQ historians are turning a page as well. Colleen Cihak and Ruth Danner have agreed to serve as co-historians, dividing their duties as their time allows. Please be patient--they're trying to catch up on the past two years, when we've gone without a historian.

Starting in January, you'll see either Ruth or Colleen snapping pictures for the scrapbook during show-and-tell, as well as other times in the meeting. Soon they hope to have our historical records and photos up to date. In order to do that, they'll need your help. Did you take any pics of speakers or show-and-tell in 2017 or 2018? If so, will you please send them digitally to the historian email address?

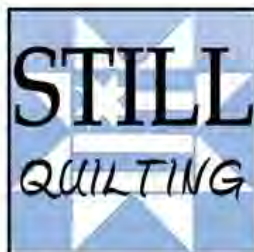

Both Ruth and Colleen are open to suggestions for improvement. Please email them at historian@wsqspokane.org.

Notes to 2019 Budget

On December 8, 2018, my budget committee which included Kathleen Woods, Robin Waggoner, Nancy Ledebor, Paula Ferry and Anita Pederson, met to prepare the 2019 WSQ budget.

The process of preparing the 2019 budget consists of the committee carefully comparing the current year's budget with the actual income and expenditures for the year and then we review the 2019 budget requests of the various committees for both the General and Quilt Show budgets. Then the budget is prepared for the presentation to the board for approval.

The 2019 WSQ Budget was presented to the board on December 12, 2018 and after discussion and approved changes on certain expenditures, both budgets were unanimously passed.

The focus of this year's budget in both the committee meeting and board meeting, were the increasing costs of most budget items, particularly the costs of putting on the guild's annual quilt show in addition to increasing costs for the venue for the Quilting Bees and Yard Sales. So far we are still able to maintain our current membership dues and cost of entry into the quilt show without increases.

In every budget report I mention how critical it is that the Quilt Show makes enough of a profit to fund the General Budget deficit so that the reserves are never touched. The profit from the quilt show subsidizes the speakers, quilting bees, library, charity central and workshops if they don't fill. Additionally, any additional funds left after profits are applied to the shortage in the General Budget, are deposited into an account for major purchases.

This account has been an important addition to the success of our guild in general and our quilt show because with the fast-growing technology, we are constantly having to update our various devices and software to keep pace. Also, things start to deteriorate like storage bins and sheets & gloves which need to be replaced and this fund is how these items are replaced without having to touch reserves. For the 2019 budget, the board approved the purchase of bins for the Library, batting for Charity Central, upgrades for our camera system for Demos at the quilt show, new books and archiving supplies for our new Historian to update WSQ's records and funds allocated for website updates. The estimated amount for these purchases is $3,150 and will be covered by this savings account.

A few highlights and changes to the actual budget line items are: General Budget – The elimination of the line item; Quilt Promo – Volunteer Fair Passes as these will be combined along with a budget for parking passes for volunteers at our Fair Booth during the Spokane International Fair, into the Quilt Promo – Spokane Interstate Fair and elimination of the Judging Fee Expense as INMQ pays for this expense.

Please continue to support our guild by attending workshops and the quilt show, purchasing raffle tickets, and of course, volunteering. We have many board positions available and would love to welcome you to our board.

I would like to thank my committee for the help and insight they provide in the preparation of this budget.
