WSQ Presents Shelley Swanland

July 27, 2023, 1pm & 6pm

For more than twenty years Shelley has been creating Cathedral Window Quilts entirely by machine. The technique uses three-dimensional piecing to construct the top, and during quilting, the bias folds are rolled and stitched in place to create a finished quilt.

Shelley has been involved in quilting and embroidering since the 70s. When silk ribbon embroidery became popular, she fell in love with the technique, creating projects and teaching. She combined her love of quilting with embroidery and embellishment to create Wearable Art. An ensemble she entered in Pacific International won 2nd Place. In the late 90s she developed a technique for Cathedral Window quilts done entirely by machine. Two books followed, Machine Stitched Cathedral Windows and Machine Stitched Cathedral Stars. She appeared on Simply Quilts and her projects were featured in McCall's Quilting, Quiltmaker and The Quilter. RJR Fashion Fabrics and Robert Kaufman Fabrics have invited her to design quilts for their publications. She has been traveling to guilds to lecture and teach the Cathedral Window technique for almost twenty years. In the last ten years she has returned to her love of Embellishment and Embroidery adding a Lecture and Workshop focused on these techniques.

President's Letter

As I sit at my computer writing this article, I'm thinking of the beautiful summer weather we're currently experiencing even though summer hasn't officially arrived. One source of enjoyment as I look out my front window is the hanging baskets and numerous containers of flowers on my front porch. The vibrant colors make me think of the gorgeous fabrics awaiting me in my sewing room. I have several projects looking for completion along with new ones to begin. Does this sound familiar to anyone? I definitely need to get busy so that I can complete my entries for the quilt show!

I'm so excited that our guild seems to be moving in a positive direction following a few years of stagnation. We're back to 400+ members, have some great speakers and workshops in our future, and our always wonderful quilt show to look forward to. I'd like to thank our Officers, our Board, and other committees that make our guild one of the biggest and best in the Pacific Northwest. You're all awesome! You have stepped forward to give us the extra activities that allow each member to participate as they wish! Thank you so much!

In order to continue our guild with the current level of administration and activities, we need to reach out to you...our wonderful members. You always seem to step forth to help. As of this time, we're in need of one more person on the Bus Trip committee. Arlene has agreed to remain on the committee provided we can find someone willing to join her who is proficient with the needed computer work. Do you enjoy going on the bus trips or going to the retreats? Perhaps you'd be the perfect person to join Arlene. WSQ is also in need of a Social Media/Publicity Chair. How are you at making Facebook and Instagram posts? Maybe the social media position would be right up your alley. If you're unsure about the ins and outs, please check with Kayla, our current chair. She's planning to move after this year, but she would be able to show you the ropes. Ruth Danner, our Historian Chair, is looking for an assistant. We're also looking for three officer positions for 2024 that Kathleen will talk about during committee reports.

Our Board has decided, along with the Library Committee's agreement, to disband the Library and begin selling the inventory. Members will be given first choice...hopefully at the July meeting. What a great way to pick up several books without breaking the bank. Please stay tuned for additional details.

Hoping to see all of you at our July 27 Membership Meeting...either 1pm or 6pm. Thank you!

Paula Ferry

President

Hello from 1st VP Programs!

Glenda and I have been exploring lots of interesting and fun speakers/teachers. By the July meeting, we should be able to announce the 2024 slate. Shelley Swanland will be at the guild for the July 2023 meeting and workshops and then Krista Moser will be here in September. Janet Nesbitt is on board for our January 2024 guild meeting and workshops. All workshops are on our WSQ website to register. The registration form is also attached to this newsletter if you prefer to print it and mail it to me with your check. We are so fortunate that our guild offers the opportunity to learn from such amazing national and international instructors. Don't miss out!!!

See our website for more information.

Mystery Quilt

These quilt tops are continuing to evolve and grow. The final clue and reveal will go out right after the July meeting. And great news!!! Cristy Marxsen, the pattern maker, will be at our WSQ quilt show to see all of the finished quilts!! I know there are gals who have been keeping right up with the clues and even chomping at the bit for the next one to be revealed. And then there are gals who are steadily working at their own pace...and then there are those...you know who you are....who seem to work best under pressure...PICK YOUR FABRIC ALREADY and get going!!! LOL!!. It will be so much fun to see all of the finished quilts in our first WSQ Mystery!

Quilt Show

Hello Fellow Quilters. As we continue preparations for the quilt show, we need your help. If you haven't heard, it takes 300+ volunteers to put on a show of this magnitude. Help us make the quilt show a success. The Quilt Show Committee Chairs/Co-Chairs will be available to answer any questions and sign you up for a shift or two. A wonderful perk of volunteering 4 or more hours is FREE admission & FREE parking all three days of the show.

The deadline for registering your quilt(s) is fast approaching. Registration closes August 6th. There are two ways to register: online or download a form & mail it in. The maximum number of quilts you can enter is 5 per person. If you have questions, contact me at secondvp@wsqspokane.org.

You can have your quilts judged by a Professional Quilt Judge for $10 per quilt. Check the box on the form and pay when you drop off your quilt at your chosen drop off location. Rest assured your judged quilt is still eligible to win a ribbon in the show.

Have you thought about selling your finished handmade, stitched, quilted, and/or quilt related items? Boutique Consignment forms are available online or in person at the July & September Membership meetings. For more information, go to the WSQ Spokane web site. There you'll find everything you need to sell your items in the WSQ Boutique.

Stop by the Fund Raising table to purchase your 2023 Quilt Show pin. With your purchase you support your guild.

Patty Yedinak
2023 Quilt Show Chairman

A Message from the Quilt Show Boutique team:

Were you thinking of signing up to be a Boutique consignee this year? We still have plenty of room for those of you who are crafty and want to benefit financially from your time in your sewing room! Remember, any quilting related item that is a finished product and handmade by you is eligible to be sold in the Boutique. Check out how easy it can be to enter your items. Our online forms are downloadable and fillable straight from the WSQ website under the Quilt Show tab. Your items don't have to be finished until the Thursday before the quilt show, only the form has to be handed in at the September Quilt Guild meeting.

Also, we still have a few open spots left to volunteer in the booth. Stop by and see if any of the openings are just right for you. Moving merchandise around, helping the cashier, and the hanging and removing of quilts to be sold are the duties of our volunteers.

Any questions? Send them to: Boutique@WSQspokane.org

Shop Hop Winners

The 2023 Shop Hop was a great success! WSQ received thanks and praise from all who enjoyed the event. The 22 participating shops hosted almost 800 shoppers who came from all the surrounding states as well as Canada over the 3 days. Each shop awarded a door prize to one shopper. Many of the shops were very generous and gave prizes that were worth a lot more than the $25 minimum. The Shop Hop committee drew names from all the passports turned in and awarded 9 prizes. Jeraldine Wenning is the winner of the grand prize quilt. Kits, patterns, fabric, books and FQ bundles were given to Lana Murry, Joan Ruelhringer, Patty Anderson, Patty Ensign, Teresa Harris, Cathy Boysen, Denise Ruddell, and Pat Patterson.

Did you visit Whimsical Willow Boutique? Shelley always provides a themed “photo booth” to record your shopping fun like Yvette and Linda did!

The Nominations Committee is still looking for candidates for the 2024 Executive Board. We are looking for a President, a Quilt Show Chair, and a Treasurer. Glenda Carlsson has agreed to take on the Speakers and Workshops job. Ernie Crann has volunteered as Secretary.

The President candidate should have some experience with the WSQ Board and how it works. The Quilt Show Chair would be best if it was someone who has been on the Quilt Show Committee. The Treasurer should have some bookkeeping experience.

Please seriously consider volunteering for one of these positions. We could really use your help. If you don't have the required experience now, we would be delighted to have you join the Board in any capacity and get some experience. It's a lot of fun and you meet a lot of people. We can't do it without you!

Kathleen Woods Nominations Chair

Board Positions available: These volunteer positions are appointed, not elected.

Bus Trip Chair(s) for 2024

Social Media/Public Relations Chair for 2024

If this sounds interesting to you please see our President, Paula, for further information.

Bus Trip and Retreat News

Unfortunately, we have had to cancel our Fall Retreat and Quilt shop visits. We did not hit the minimum number of participants required to cover our costs. If you registered for this event we appreciate your support of WSQ. A separate e-mail will be sent with refund information. We are looking at ideas for our next event. We hope you will consider coming along with us on a future trip.

Charity Central - July 2023

Charity Central July Newsletter 2023

We collected and donated 109 finished quilts this quarter. We gave 15 to Cancer Center NW, 5 to Vanessa Behan, 10 to Transitions Women's Drop In Center, 35 to Catholic Charities, 3 to Hospice, 30 to the Salvation Army, 3 to Sacred Heart Hospital, and 8 to Refugee Connections.

We currently have about 30 quilts to be quilted, about 10 quilts that need binding, and about 100 quilt tops needing backing and batting. We have received many donations of batting and backing. Thank you to those who donated, it is greatly appreciated!

We hosted 2 Sew Days this quarter, one sponsored by Charity Central and one in conjunction with the Quilting Bee. We had about 30 attendees total, and many kits were pieced and picked up.

Block Exchange will have four kits available that Charity Central put together using the 21 churn dash blocks that were turned in at the last meeting. These quilts were a special request from the Cancer Center. We are currently working on more kits for your sewing pleasure, some will be using Shabby Fabrics fusible hearts, and some will be scrappy squares. We plan to have them available at the July meeting. We will also have several sets of vintage blocks for sale as well as our One Pound Bundles. We are in the process of cleaning out everything that we have been given that we cannot use to make charity quilts. We will be having a "Year End Clearance Sale" in September to finish up this process. We want to have a leaner, cleaner stash and a smaller storage unit. Less money for rent means more money for batting!

We currently have 345 members on our Charity Central Facebook page. It's been so much fun to see what everyone is working on and to see the quilts that get turned in at the meeting. There are many people posting pictures, sharing patterns and links, and commenting on everything that is going on. We have an active committee of about 12 members. We spend a lot of time cutting, sorting, and packaging fabric. Sometimes, we even get to sew some! Thank you all for all you do for Charity Central and the Spokane Community. We couldn't do it without you!

WSQ Quilting Bee

August 5, 2023

Country Homes Christian Church, 8415 N. Wall
(Corner of Wall & Country Homes Blvd)

9:00 AM – 3:00 PM

There are no Guest Speakers Scheduled

Come enjoy a day of quilting, door prizes, and potluck lunch.

Everyone is welcome! You need not be a WSQ member to attend the Quilting Bees!

- Bring a project to work on. Space for sewing machines is available but do bring a power strip for your machine.
- Bring a dish to share for our potluck lunch as well as a plate & utensils.
- Coffee & tea will be provided.
- Show and Share a finished or unfinished quilted item.
- We have door prizes.
- Questions about the Bee? Contact Kelly Foreman at kellyanneforeman@gmail.com

Quilting Bee Donations

We would appreciate any quilting related donation from your sewing rooms. We ask that your donations are items in good condition and if donating fabric that the pieces be at least a fat quarter. We all love fabric, but templates, books, patterns, marking tools, etc. are welcomed! We repurpose many of these items for some of our door prizes. Thank you for your support and willingness to donate, we couldn't do it without your help.

WSQ GENERAL MEETING MINUTES

CENTERPLACE 04/27/2023

Call to order 1.02pm and 6.00 pm

Paula Ferry, President: Welcomed all, including new members and guests. Officers were introduced and displays around the room were pointed out.

Paula also presented to the membership why we had to raise the admission to the WSQ Quilt show from $10.00 to $15.00. Prices have risen, and we are finding the vendors have higher expenses. Some vendors are not returning because of age, retirement, or higher costs, so we didn't feel it was in our best interest to raise their fees. She also noted that we buy the parking lot so that we do not have to charge for parking. That is a $5.00 a day saving for everyone.

Our Volunteer of the Quarter was introduced: Ruth McCormick was awarded a thank you certificate, a heart in hand pin, and a gift certificate for a free workshop.

January 26, 2023 minutes were approved as submitted.

Executive Board Reports:

1st Vice President, Darlene Mossman told us about the speakers coming for the next four general meetings in 2023 and 2024. She talked about the mystery quilt. Clues are being sent this weekend and the last clues will go out in July. There is a special entry category on the quilt show registration form for the Wandering Grace mystery quilts made by members. She also mentioned that the Global Quilt Connection is free to members and will be May 6 and 7, 2023.

2nd Vice President, Patty Yedinak: Quilt Show preparations are in full swing. There are lots of opportunities to sign up to volunteer, register your quilts, buy a quilt show pin, register items to sell in the Boutique, and help distribute Quilt Show Bookmarks and Posters to your family, friends, or anywhere your travels take you. When you volunteer a minimum of 4 hours during set up and/or during the Quilt show, you get free admission and free parking all three days of the show. Volunteering is a great way to get involved, meet new people and reconnect with old friends. Please see the ladies at the back of the room for more details. If you have questions, please ask. The 2023 Farm Girl Quilt show pin at the Fund-Raising Table for $5.00. There are 2 ways to register your quilts...online or paper form. The on-line option is fast, efficient and easy. Go the WSQ website, click on Quilt Show, click register your quilt and then follow the prompts. We also have paper forms available today. Remember to register early, the first 100 quilts entered will receive a collectible 1st 100 specially designed pin for the quilt show. There is a 5-quilt maximum for the 2023 show.

Treasurer, Diane Pantry: I have reconciled two months' bank statements and found no errors or issues. The current balance is adequate to cover immediate WSQ commitments. If any member wishes to see the bank balances and discuss any issues, please come see me. This week I will send out income and expense reports to be reviewed by the chairmen of the three activities that have been completed this year...Retreat, Yard Sale, and Shop Hop. A couple of the chairs have gotten back to me, letting me know they have some outstanding bills but even accounting for those amounts...great job! The income generated more than covered their expenses; they added a little to the bank account which helps cover our overheads. This is important so that we can recoup the losses incurred during the two years of COVID. Thanks for all your work. I am working on a list of procedures, policies, and instructions regarding financial issues so that chairmen have a better understanding of how this part of the process works. If anyone has something they would like for me to include, let me know.

Committee Reports

Fair Ribbons/Bagging Party /IN Memoriam, Cheryl Moriarty: The 2023 fair dates for all of the fairs that we support have been updated on the website. Many links to the fair exhibitor guide/entry forms are current, while some of the fairs have not updated their forms. (The fairs are in August and September, but some of the booklets do not come out until May or June, so keep checking back) The ribbons have been ordered and will be sent or delivered to the fairs in early August.

The bagging party for the quilt show will be on Thursday September 14 starting at 8:30 AM. The location is not yet confirmed, but we should have it by the July meeting.

The "In Memoriam" section of the quilt show so far includes seven (7) ladies who have passed away within the last year or so. We will be honoring them at this years' quilt show. If anyone knows of a quilter who should be added to this list, please let me know.

Librarian, Lois Collins: we have lots of books, take one for $1.00, read it bring it back and get another. We have magazines also for .25 cents.

Lorean Boornazian: Margie Karavitas award...there is a committee set up who will present the award following various criteria that features hand work.

Raffle Quilt 2023, Shawna Troyer needs volunteers to help her sell raffle tickets at the various places she has set up.

Ballot Counting Chair, Brenda Burger has changed the hours for ballot counting...they will be afternoon hours only Friday and Saturday

WSQ Challenge, Naomi Hall: What's on your barn? She has pieces of red barn fabric for $1, or a fat quarter for $2.

Cashier: Beth West is adding 2 cashier lines, one for cash and one for credit card so that it will run more smoothly.

Block Exchange, Mary Applonie: Block for July is in the newsletter...fabric colors are Red, White, and Blue. Winner of April Blocks is Candace Bark.

Shop Hop, Ruth McCormick: Everyone seemed to have a good time.

Pin Cushion, Glenda Carlsson: Pin cushion exchange was held near the front during break.

Bus Trips and Retreat: Arlene Sexton and Kayle McNett: Everyone had a great retreat. We had 39 participants, and from the feedback it was a great venue, great rooms, and delicious food. I think everyone agrees it would be a super place to go again. Montana Trip - The dates of our fall retreat are October 26-29, 2023. We will be at the Spruce Lodge, Lakeside, Mt. There are several neat quilt shops on the way to and from the lodge. We have plans to visit a few of these shops. Look at the website for registration information. The cost is $600 for members and $650 for non-members. The bus rental takes up a good portion of this amount. A detailed itinerary and other information will be in an upcoming Facebook post and in the newsletter. This event has been CANCELED.

Charity Central and Nominations, Kathleen Woods: We have given away 128 Quilts since the January meeting. We gave 25 to Cancer Center NW, 20 to Catholic Charities, 17 each to Volunteers of America, Sacred Heart Hospital, and Refugee Connection. We gave 15 quilts to the Salvation Army, and 2 each to Vanessa Behan, Ronald McDonald and Hospice. Thank you for all you do for the Spokane Community. We are introducing Charity Rolls, Charity Cakes, and Charity Charms today. We have taken our latest donation from Shabby Fabrics, cut it up and made these charity packs for you to take home and make your favorite jelly roll, layer cake, and charms patterns into a quilt top. Please sign them out when you take them and back in when you return the tops. Our supply of kits is getting low, thank you so much for that and we are hoping all the kits are gone by the end of the year. We have 3 cross stitch quilts that we will be having a silent auction on during the break. They are not suitable for a quilt top that will be washed a lot. Kim Mitchell took these and repaired, quilted, cleaned and rebound these cute quilts. Bid high and often. The winner will be announced before the speaker begins. We are selling “one-pound Bundles” and various kits which helps Charity Central stay self-sustaining. Thank You. We have given away a good part of our fabric to many groups looking for it for their own charity work. We are now down to a much leaner and cleaner fabric stash. We are in the fabric business not the fabric storage business. Today I brought 25 quilts that needed binding and they are all gone. Thank you for those who do this binding for us. We have 320 members on our Facebook page. This is amazing as we have been only on Facebook less than a year. How is everyone doing on the strip challenge? The box is here for your completed blocks. We will combine some of the shabby fabrics and make more kits.

Nominations for 2024. We need nominees for President, Secretary and Quilt Show Chair. We have a volunteer for the Speakers and Workshops position, Glenda Carlsson. Diane Pantry has agreed to stay on as Treasurer. Each position is for a one-year term, with a maximum of two years.. If you are interested, please let me or the current officer know. They can give you more information on what the job entails. [We wonder who reads all the meeting minutes. If you have read completely through the minutes from the April meeting, see Ruth McCormick for a small gift at the July meeting!]

NEW NOTE: WE ARE LOOKING FOR PRESIDENT, QUILT SHOW CHAIR AND TREASURER.
Respectfully Submitted,

Shirley Shirkey, Secretary

Margie Karavitis Award

The Margie Karavitis Award was set up years ago to honor Margie Karavitis who did exquisite hand appliqué and hand quilting. Two of her quilts, “Cherry Rose” and “Oh My Stars” are in the National Quilting Museum in Paducah, KY. (<https://quiltmuseum.org>). Photos of both quilts may be found on the WSQ website, courtesy of the National Quilt Museum.

Since many of our members did not know Margie, the Quilt Show Committee decided to explain the significance of the Award and to establish guidelines to encourage entries into the hand quilted categories.

There is no special category for the Award. Instead, quilts must be entered into the appropriate hand quilted category and meet the following requirements:

- Quilts must be made entirely by one person.
- They must be hand quilted.
  1. Whole cloth quilts must be entirely hand quilted. Panels and stamped designs of any kind are not allowed.
  2. Wool quilts with hand appliqué and hand quilting are also acceptable.
  3. Sashiko by hand will also be considered.
- All appliqué must be done entirely by hand.
- Pieced quilts may be pieced by machine but must have large, open spaces to showcase the quilting. They must be entirely hand quilted.
- Quilts may be any size. Entries in the home dec category will NOT be considered.
- You may use a sewing machine to stitch hand appliquéd blocks together, attach sashings and borders, and attach binding to the top of the quilt. Binding must be finished by hand.

Judging will be done on Saturday afternoon.

Resources: There are innumerable videos online for hand appliqué and hand quilting. Here are three websites and several books:
