45th Annual Quilt Show “Farm Girl”

It's hard to believe the quilt show is just a month away. Are you ready? I hope you answered with a resounding “YES we are!” I am pleased to announce we have a total of 525 quilts entered, 57 Merchant Mall vendors, and many special exhibits.

It has been an honor and a privilege to serve as the 2nd Vice President & Chair of the 2023 Quilt Show Committee. If it weren't for the dedication and hard work of our Quilt Show Committee members and the 300 plus quilt show volunteers; we would not be able to accomplish such a feat. Thank you to all!!

As you know, it takes lots and lots of volunteers to put on a show of this magnitude. If you haven't yet volunteered or would like to add hours, we would love to see you. Volunteer sign ups continue in September. A wonderful perk of volunteering a minimum of 4 hours is FREE admission and FREE parking all three days.

Don't forget to purchase your 2023 Quilt Show Pin and Quilt Show t-shirt. Wear them during the quilt show.

Would you like to make some extra money? If you have quilt related items you'd like to sell, there is still time to get your paperwork in. All consignment forms are due by the September General Meeting. Not sure where to get the form? Go to wsqspokane.org and click on the Quilt Show page. The Boutique is a great way to make some extra cash, show off your wares, and help support WSQ.

Thank you to every member of WSQ Spokane. You are Awesome!!

Patty Yedinak, 2023 Quilt Show Chair

Boutique News:

Hopefully all of you have been VERY industrious this summer! We still have time to enlist more consignees to the Boutique team at this year's Quilt Show. If you think you have something you want to sell, don't hesitate to send us an email. It doesn't take long to assign your specific consignee number! Do you have questions on what is deemed “quilting related, handmade, finished items”? Send us an email, and we will be glad to answer those questions. The instructions, forms, and fill-able forms can be found under the quilt show tab (near the bottom of the page) on the WSQ website. Remember the deadline to submit is the September guild meeting, but you can easily do it any time before the 28th of September at 8:30 pm.!

We still have a couple of positions for volunteering open. It will give you a great idea on just what the Boutique is all about. Are you on the fence about becoming a consignee? Just remember to stop in the Boutique Booth at the Quilt Show this year, look at all the great merchandise for sale, and say, “I can do this!”

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings to all members and friends of Washington State Quilters-Spokane Chapter. I've noticed a bit of fall in the air as evenings are beginning to cool off a bit more quickly. Fall brings to mind all of the upcoming fairs in our vicinity...from small fairs to large fairs. Did you know that WSQ sponsors first and second place ribbons and first place prize money for quilts at ten different area fairs? Some of our smaller fairs do look for quilt entries from larger arenas. I was privileged to judge quilts at the Ferry County Fair in Republic last year. Their regular judge was unable to attend, so I was her replacement. I'd never been to Republic before...everyone told me it was a beautiful drive over Sherman Pass from Kettle Falls to Republic. Well...I will admit that I'm terrified of heights, so I spent much of that drive with my eyes closed (my husband came with me and he was driving...LOL). But...back to the quilts. I was amazed at some of the fabulous quilters up in that area of our state. It was difficult to narrow down and pick winners in every category plus a grand prize winner. Kudos to all of the quilters up in Ferry County!

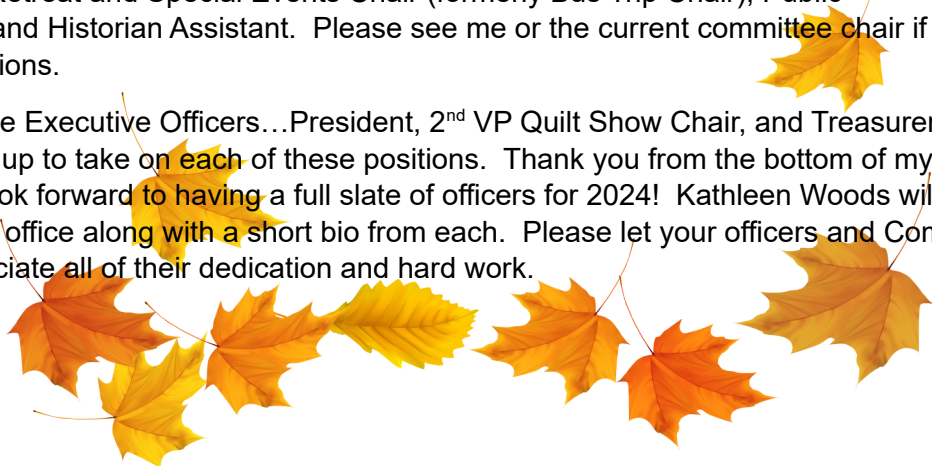

At September's Membership Meeting we will be rounding out our year with Krista Moser. Krista was our lecturer/instructor in September 2021. She's coming back to us this time using patterns and ruler techniques from the Sew Kind of Wonderful book and the curved ruler. Krista is a very talented speaker and instructor and delivers her lecture with much humor. Krista will have a sales table, which is always a popular place to be. Guests are welcome for a $15 fee at the door.

Have you had a chance to purchase a raffle ticket for our gorgeous raffle quilt? Tickets are $1 each. Our fundraising committee continues to surprise all of us with their fun homemade items. There may even be some of the special quilt show t-shirts left. They were going like "hotcakes" at the July meeting for $15 each for short sleeves. Our Library is still selling off its inventory; both books and magazines will be available for sale. Charity Central continues to provide kits for piecing charity tops. Our Mystery Quilts will be the star of the September Show and Tell. Everyone who has participated on this Mystery Quilt journey is invited to show their completed quilt at the September meeting. If you've not yet had the opportunity to volunteer to help at the Quilt Show in October, you will have another opportunity to sign up at the September meeting. If you volunteer for 4 hours, you will receive free admission all three days of the show.

We are looking for a volunteer of the quarter. Please have your nominations sent to me no later than September 15, along with a paragraph about why your nominee deserves this honor. We are also looking for three WSQ Board members: Retreat and Special Events Chair (formerly Bus Trip Chair), Public Relations/Social Media Chair, and Historian Assistant. Please see me or the current committee chair if you are interested in one of these positions.

I sent out a plea in July for three Executive Officers...President, 2nd VP Quilt Show Chair, and Treasurer. Once again, members have stepped up to take on each of these positions. Thank you from the bottom of my heart! You guys rock! Now we can look forward to having a full slate of officers for 2024! Kathleen Woods will present our nominees for each office along with a short bio from each. Please let your officers and Committee members know that you appreciate all of their dedication and hard work.

Paula Ferry, President

WSQ Presents Krista Moser

September 28, at 1:00 and 6:00

Krista was such a big hit in September 2021, that she will be returning to our Guild this September. She will be entertaining us with her humor and spunk. She will be teaching a workshop on the Curved Ruler Giving Tree pattern on Friday, September 29, 2023, and a workshop on the pattern Color Theory on Saturday, September 30, 2023, Both workshops will use the Curved Ruler by Sew Kind of Wonderful.

(<https://sewkindofwonderful.com>) She may have a kit available for the Tree workshop. Keep a watch on the WSQ email blasts for more info.

Of herself Krista writes,

“Hi! I’m Krista Moser, the creative force and inspiration behind Krista Moser, The Quilted Life. I am the designer of the 60 Degree Diamond Rulers for Creative Grids, and I’ve published dozens of patterns, using the rulers, with more in development all the time. I love symmetry, clean lines with bold colors. I think shapes that tessellate in all directions are a playground for design.”

A quilting and fiber arts enthusiast, Krista started sewing at 8 years old. She began her professional sewing and machine quilting career at the spunky age of fourteen. She has been teaching sewing and quilting lessons for more than twenty years. Her work has been featured in quilting magazines, published by Martingale Press. Her quilts have been hung in prominent quilt shops around the country.

Charity Central

Approximately 50 finished quilts and 40 tops were turned in at the July Membership meeting. We sorted over 100 quilts and 10 afghans into bundles for distribution later this month. July is usually our most sparsely attended meeting, so to have that many quilts turned in is very good. Thank you to everyone who has donated a quilt this quarter!

We received a large donation of fabric from Shabby Fabrics in June and have been busy sorting, cutting, and kitting fabric since then. We had about 40 kits picked up at the meeting. Some of those kits are new designs for us. We hope that you enjoy putting them together. We will be working on kitting up the hundreds of fusible shapes that we received from Shabby several years ago and should have those kits available in the New Year. I hope you like machine applique, there is going to be a lot of it!

At our September meeting we will be auctioning off the last of our Cross Stitch Quilts that we received last fall. We will be having a "Year End Clearance Sale" on our Fundraising items. We will have lots of kits to be pieced and quilts to be quilted, so be sure you pick up enough to get you through until the January meeting. It's going to be a long time until then.

We have another Sew Day scheduled at the North Spokane Dance Center at 7424 N Freya Street for October 11 from 9 until 3. Come and join us as we sew up Charity Quilt Tops. We will have kits available or bring your own. It is lots of fun to see what everyone else is working on.

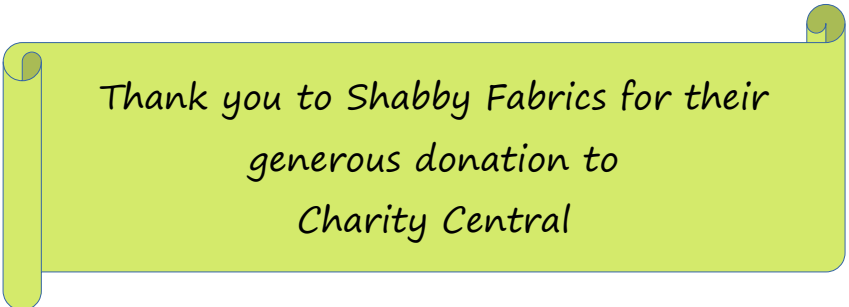

We will have our Charity Central Mountain of Quilts booth at the Quilt Show. We will be accepting finished quilts, quilt tops, orphan blocks, and complete or partial kits. We are not accepting fabric currently. Stop by to see what you have accomplished this year, and the "thank you" notes we have received from a grateful community.

We hope to distribute a good deal of our fabric inventory to other groups this fall. We are working on a cleaner and leaner fabric stash and are expecting another large donation from Shabby Fabrics in January. We want to be in the fabric using business, not the fabric storing business. If your group could use some fabric, let us know.

Check out our Charity Central Facebook page. We are now 370 members strong. There are lots of pictures for inspiration, lots of links to other places, and just a whole lot of stuff going on. It is a very dynamic community, come join us and see what the fuss is all about! We thank everyone who is a member. We couldn't do it without you.

We wish you a blessed and busy Fall and Winter Season. We hope you have time for company and time for yourself. We hope that you will be able to work on projects for yourself and others. Thank you for all you do for Charity Central. See you at the Quilt Show!

Kathleen Woods and the Charity Central Committee

*Thank you to Shabby Fabrics for their generous donation to
Charity Central*

2023 Nominations

May I present the WSQ Executive Board for 2024? Thank you, Ladies, for your willingness to serve. We will be voting on this slate of officers at the September Membership meeting. Meet them now!

President: Dina Pappas

Dina describes herself as “a WSQ member from 1990 who misplaced her name tag!” She grew up in Spokane and returned in 2015. She owned a quilt shop in Eagle River, Alaska, for 11 years. Pellon developed gridded fusible interfacing to support her 3 books, Quick Watercolor Quilts, More Quick Watercolor Quilts and Fast-Forward Your Quilting. She says “WSQ is a very talented group, and I hope to be a good President.”

First Vice President Speakers/Workshops Glenda Carlson

Glenda started in the 1980's making baby quilts, children's quilts and log cabin bed quilts on a hand-me-down sewing machine given to her by her mother. Four children and a full time IT job resulted in very little quilting for several years. In the 2000's she restarted her quilting adventures with small collage quilts, thread painting, free motion quilting, hand dying fabric, designing raw edge applique patterns and vending her dyed fabric and patterns at regional quilt shows. Her favorite part of the quilting process? Quilting, be it on a domestic or long arm machine. She now runs a long arm business out of her basement studio in North Spokane, doing what she loves. Glenda has been a member of WSQ for 3 years.

Second Vice President Quilt Show Annette Drennen

Annette learned to quilt when she was eight years old. She says, “My grandpa taught me how to cut pieces using cardboard templates, that I still have today!” She finished her first quilt at ten and has enjoyed quilting ever since. In 2002 she taught herself to machine quilt. “What a game changer!” she said. Annette attended her first WSQ quilt show in 2006 where she learned about art quilts She has enjoyed making a couple a year. In 2022 she started the Infant Memorial Quilt Club. She is very passionate about this project and has enjoyed watching the love of quilters from near and far who contribute. She joined WSQ in January of this year. She is excited to be a member and learn from all of the gifted quilters here. Annette also enjoys hiking with Ariel, her first foster fail/win, boxer. She loves anything on or near the water and cooking, especially homemade pasta.

Secretary Ernestina Crann

Call her “Ernie” as everyone does. She has been quilting for about 10 years, “not very long and still not very proficient,” Ernie says. But she is learning new tricks on how to work smarter not harder. She is a member of Fat Quarter Quilters and was their secretary for about 4 years on and off. She loves making quilts and especially loves the friendships that she has developed over the years. She became a member of WSQ in 2017 and has enjoyed being around wonderful ladies and learning from our guest speakers. She plans to do her best and continue learning the art of quilting and making more lasting friendships.

Treasurer Catherine Anderson

Catherine started quilting around 1997 when she met some fellow quilters while working at Deaconess. She joined WSQ in 2000 and has been active with the Quilt Show committee in several capacities. Her last board position was Raffle Quilt. She is looking forward to this new challenge.

I hope you will join me in welcoming the new Executive Board and helping them out whenever you can.

Kathleen Woods
Nominations Chair

WSQ GENERAL MEETING MINUTES

Welcomed all, including new members and guests. Officers were introduced and displays around the room were pointed out.

Executed Board Reports:

1st Vice President, Darlene Mossman: Told us about the upcoming speakers. She talked about the mystery quilt. Final clues being sent this weekend. There is a special entry in the quilt show registration form for the Wandering Grace mystery quilts made by the members. She also mentioned that the next Global Quilt Connection Sampler Platter is free to members and will be September 23 and 24, 2023.

2nd Vice President, Patty Yedinak: Quilt Show preparations are in full swing, and we need your help. If you haven't heard, it takes over 300 volunteers to put on a show of this magnitude. We currently have 100 people. Thank you to those who have already volunteered. If you haven't, please consider volunteering. Help us make this a success. The Quilt show Committee chairs /co-chairs will be available to answer any questions you may have. A wonderful perk of volunteering 4 or more hours is free admission and free parking all three days of the show. The deadline for registering your quilts is August 6, 2023. There are 2 ways to register...online...or download a form and mail it in or give it to one of the ladies in the back today. The maximum number of items you can enter is 5 per person. We currently have 223 quilts registered.

Lastly, we are in need of a President for 2024. My question to the Guild, what are we going to do as a guild without a president?

Committee reports:

2023 Raffle Quilt, Shawna Troyer: So far, we have sold $1045.00 in raffle tickets. We're looking for a volunteer for the Riverfront Park event. Please contact me.

Block Exchange chair, Mary Applonie: Fall pattern is lots of fall colors. Winners of the July blocks are Audry McLean and Candace Bath.

Bagging Party chair, Colleen Mussetter: Bagging party is Sept 14 at the Hive, 2904 E Sprague, 9.30 to 1pm

Boutique, Marge Rouse: The form for the items you want to sell at the boutique needs to be turned in by September meeting, and the actual items need to be turned by Oct 19, 2023

Quilt Show Chair/Fund raising, Anita Pederson: Tee shirts have arrived and are going fast. Lots of other fundraising items are on the table.

Librarian, Lois Collins: We are selling off the old library items, magazines, 25cents, most books $1.00. We will continue to sell it off. Then we will consider new books.

Charity Central: We got another huge donation from Shabby Fabrics, and we are putting together many kits.

Fair Ribbons/In Memoriam, Cheryl Moriarty: The ribbons should be ready for pickup in the next few days, they will then be mailed/distributed to the fairs. Most of the links to the exhibitor guides for the 10 fairs we support have been updated on our website: At last check, there were a few fairs whose 2023 exhibitor guides were not yet available. We encourage you to support these local fairs and remind you that in addition to 1st and 2nd place ribbons, there is also a monetary award for 1st place.

So far, we will be honoring the memories of eight ladies at our show this fall.

Pin Cushion exchange, Glenda Carlsson: The pin cushions were displayed on the side table... pictures of the exchange were taken during break.

Several beautiful quilts were displayed during Show and Tell. Following the break, speaker Shelley Swanland was introduced. She presented a slide show and trunk show to illustrate her technique of Cathedral Windows By Machine, which is her Friday Workshop. Also presented were photos and quilts that were beautifully embellished, which is her Saturday workshop.

Numerous door prizes were given away following the completion of the program.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted, Shirley Shirkey
